"What senator was ever celeted by the Legislature of Virginia had less experience than did the junior senator when he was elected the first time. Had he ever made a public speech? Had he ever held a public effice? Why did not Governor McKinney, who lived in an adjoining county to him, appoint hit ime succeed Senator Barbour? He claimed General Hunton, General Lee and Major Holmes Conrad all had held long experience in public life, yet the junior senator was selected, over each of them by the General Assembly.

"My candidacy must meet the endorsement or disfavor of the people of the State, and I trust it is not unseemly to my fellow-citizens for me to invoke their consideration. It is not an question of whether I can fill the place, but whether I can be of service to the people of the State. I submit that the junior senator has not done enough to justify eighteen years in the Federal Senate, a change in Virginia is not going to nur anything. ### SWANSON MAKES VOTES IN FARMVILLE

Speaks to Large and Enthusiastic Audience in Opera House. House.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FARMVILLE, VA., May 25.—A more enthusiastic audience never faced a speaker in Farmville than that which gathered in the Opera House to-night to hear Mr. Swanson, in advocacy of his nomination for Governor. Many ladies were in the audience and quite a number of farmers were present from various parts of the county. It was Mr. Swanson's first visit to this town and made a most favorable and lasting impression. Indeed, he had not spoken half an hour before he had the sympathy of the large crowd, and if a doubt of his Prince Edward strength ever existed, it was apparently dispelled before his adaress was concluded.

Mr. Swanson was Introduced by Di concluded.

Mr. Swanson was Introduced by Dr. William E. Anderson, county chairman of the Democratic party, in a graceful speech, in which he extolled his life and work in the party, declaring that he was entitled to the governorship and predicting his nomination. Mr. Swanson's speech was along the lines of other addresses he has delivered throughout the State during the campaign. After complimenting the town, saying its apparent thrift and progressiveness and its substantial homes made him think he was in a city of at least fifteen thousand inhabitants, he went interestingly into a discussion of the issues.

He paid a glowing tribute to the lamented Governor McKinney, which set the house wild with applause. He touched a popular chord when he reached the subject of good roads and common school education. He strongly favored Federal supplemental aid for road improvement. He was a welcome advocate of better schools and as an original proposition, he favored the single book list; that under the present adoption, the State of Virginia was paying from twenty-live to fifty per cient, more for school books than other States had to pay for the same books. One of the greatest cursed was the frequent changes made in school books.

Mr. Swanson spoke for one hour and a half and was given close attention throughout. His remarks were inter-spersed with applause as he frequently touched upon matters of importance to the people. Without doubt, his speech here to-night strengthened him Farm-

Get Rid of Your Catarrh by Using Hyonaci Now.

Everyone who has estarrh should take advantage of the warm weather to get rid of this annoying and distressing discase. The right treatment, faithfully followed, in May or June, will benefit much more quickly than in the Winter and early Spring.

Do not try to cure estarrh of the head and threat by taking drugs into the stomach. It cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this too common disease can be cured is through a firset application of Hyomei that will kill the germs of catarrh and prevent their growth.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement, and in a short time, especially if used at this scases of the year, there will be no further treather from catarrh.

Marriage of Hero of Merrimac Agitation Did Not Spread to Any Occurred Yesterday at Tuxedo Park.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Cornelius P. Shea, president of the International Teamsters' Union, was upheld to-day by Judge Kohlsaat, of the Federal Court, in his refusal to answer questions before Master-in-Chancery Sherman, which might tend to incriminate him. Shea is now under indictment in the Criminal Court and Judge Kohlsaat declared that answers to some of the questions put to him, might prejudice the hearing of his case.

In the same decision, which excused Shea, the court ruled that Bernard Mulligan, president of the Express privers' Union, and John Donohue, a member of the same union, had refused to answer questions which could not, in any way, connect them with any criminal proceedings, and they were, therefore, in contempt of court. He sentenced both men to juil, but allowed them to remain in nominal custody in the hands of United States Marshal Ames for flye days in order that their attorneys may perfect a review on habeas corpus proceedings before another Federal judge.

MISS RUSSELL LOST $2,000 ON DAINTY

Disregarded Advice and Raised Money on Her Diamond Ring.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PITTSBURG, PA., May 25.—Lillian Russell got a tip last night that "Dainty" was to win the Brooklyn handleap to-day. Where she got it, it is not known, but she was stuck on the name from the first time she read the list of racers. Sine was up late last night rehearising an old role and did not have time this morning to read the papers to learn the pools and was advised to hunt up Frank Totten, irreasurer of the Nixon. Totten graciously advised Miss Lillian that Delhi was a sure thing, as he had put his coin up on her.

Delhi was favorite to the betting and carried thousands upon thousands of public money. As good as four to one could be had against his chances for a moment, when the books opened, but the flood of wagers forced his price to five to two in a few minutes.

Ostrich and Graziallo were heavily backed for second and third positions so that the general run race-goers may be said to have profited as they seldom do in their battles with the layers over the big handleaps. Extent Yesterday and There

The start was in a chute to the left of the stand, Colonial Girl drew the rail position and which the barrier went up, showed for a brief space in front. Not for long, however, were the Rowe colors to lead, for Delhi rushed to the fore under vigorous urging and when the racers sourried past the "fudges's stand, he already held a commanding position. Graziallo, nicely handled by Hilderbrand, worked into second place before Colonial Girl, while Lord of the Vale was fourth with the others strung out behind. The leaders evidently were almost exhausted and under a gruelling from the whip Ostrich ran up to them as though they had stopped. Half a dozen jumps from the finish, he finashed between Delhi and Graziallo and snatched from the latter the second section of the purse. Colonial Girl also weakened and Sir Brillar finished stoutly in fourth place.
